PREPARATION FOR ENE SESSION

In preparation for the ENE session, the attorneys for each party, and the parties appearing pro se, if any, shall submit a confidential written evaluation statement for the Court's in camera review.

If attached exhibits are voluminous, they should be separately tabbed. Failure to do so may result in the documents being returned with the requirement that they be properly tabbed. The evaluation statement shall be concise and shall:

1. Identify, by name or status the person(s) with decision-making authority, who, in addition to counsel, will attend the ENE session as representative(s) of the party, and persons connected with a party opponent (including an insurer representative) whose presence might substantially improve the utility of the ENE session or the prospects of settlement;
2. Describe briefly the substance of the suit, addressing the party's views on the key liability issues and damages;
3. Describe the legal or factual issues, if any, whose early resolution would reduce significantly the scope of the dispute or contribute to settlement negotiations;
4. Describe the history and status of settlement negotiations; and
5. Include copies of documents, pictures, recordings, etc., out of which the suit arose, or whose availability would materially advance the purposes of the evaluation session (e.g., medical reports, documents by which special damages might be determined.)

The written evaluation statements shall be submitted directly to my chambers - Room 3099 - not later than March 14, 2018. DO NOT DELIVER OR MAIL THEM TO THE CLERK'S OFFICE. DO NOT SERVE A COPY ON OPPOSING COUNSEL.

The purpose of the evaluation statement is to assist the undersigned Magistrate Judge in preparing for and conducting the ENE session. In order to facilitate a meaningful session, your utmost candor in providing the requested information is required. The written evaluation statements will not be seen by or shared with the district judge or magistrate judge to whom this case is assigned.
